

contact: Mark Lindsey, Dir. of Sales & Marketing
p 520.577.5867
f 520.577.5887
mark.lindsey@westin.com

Experience a Higher Level of Play at La Paloma Country Club

Take your game to a new level at The La Paloma Country Club, Tucson's premier private club where country club sophistication and luxury combine. Operated by Troon Golf, known for superior service, course surfaces and amenities, the award-winning 27-hole Jack Nicklaus Signature Design golf course is exclusive to resort guests and La Paloma Country Club members. Inspired by the Santa Catalina Mountains as a backdrop and punctuated by the high Sonoran Desert's natural beauty, "The Golden Bear's" Signature Design golf course is a golfer's paradise.

The Ridge, Canyon and Hill courses nestle acres of lush high Sonoran Desert terrain encircling The Westin La Paloma. Bring your video camera as well as golf clubs to capture what Dan La Rouere, General Manager of La Paloma Country Club, aptly refers to as "The Nature Channel." Quail, doves, toads, lizards, bobcats, javalinas, coyotes, owls, hawks, and a large variety of birds are found sharing the course at pre-dawn and dusk. Mature mesquite and Palo Verde trees, multi-colored flowering plants, and indigenous succulents, such as prickly pear, barre, agave, and cholla cacti begin where the greens end.

Personally designed by world renowned architect and player, Jack Nicklaus and opened in 1984, each course is appropriately named according to its style. La Paloma Country Club is located at an elevation of approximately 2,300 feet, which explains why rolling hills define the Hill Course in contrast to more valleys found on the Canyon Course. One might argue the best views of the Santa Catalina Mountains are found on the Ridge Course, but play all three first to find out.

hill course

Signature hole #8. 157 yards, par 3. On this short hole, two of the three strokes should be putts. A short iron over a deep valley to a green must be accurate in finding the pin, or the player will have a challenging putt on this moderately contoured green.

ridge course

Signature hole #4. 199 yards, par 3. The Santa Catalina Mountains form a magnificent backdrop for this hole. It plays across the edge of a canyon 30 to 40 feet below the fairway to a well-contained green guarded on the back and left side by grassy hollows and mounds.

canyon course

Signature hole #7. 445 yards, par 4/5. Enjoy the view, but be sure your tee shot is long and to the right on this signature, yet very difficult hole. A major wash to the left hand and a sloping hill to the right guard the fairway. The approach shot will blind one to a green that is cut into a hillside 30 feet higher than the fairway.

instruction

Take your game to a higher level with the help of our PGA golf staff professionals. Group and private lessons are available through our Director of Instruction. Complete full swing and short game schools are available upon request.

golf tournaments

La Paloma's experienced tournament director will assist in planning a successful and enjoyable group golf tournament. La Paloma Country Club accommodates groups of 16 to 216 players. Services include scorecard preparation, rules sheets, cart signs, golf club loading and unloading, and event scoring. As an added value, custom merchandise may be ordered for all attendees.

dining

Before the shotgun start, enjoy a sumptuous buffet or afterward, a plated dinner banquet celebrating a winning tournament at La Paloma Country Club's Dining Room. Accommodating groups of 20 to 200 people, La Paloma's catering staff is available to plan menu selection, table setting, decoration and tailor-made theme events. The covered, outdoor patio has seating available overlooking Hill Course #9 and features beautiful desert and mountain views.

The 19th hole is adjacent to the La Paloma dining room. This versatile dining room/bar lounge is ideal for smaller, intimate parties up to 20 people. Out door function space with patio seating is available.

retail

A fully stocked Golf Shop fulfills every golfer's want and need including men's and women's apparel, golf clubs, balls, shoes, golf bags, sunglasses and accessories. Find the perfect gift to bring home among the many choices including candles, candle holders, picture frames, and pottery.

awards

Among the many awards and acclaims for excellence, Golf Digest, Golf Magazine and Conde Nast Traveller rate the course among the best in the United States. And Golf for Women has recognized La Paloma as one of the country's most women-friendly courses. La Paloma Country Club received the Silver Medal for "Best Golf Tournament" earning this top ranking for its' efficiency in running tournaments. Golf World has ranked our pro shop as one of the top 100 in the nation.

For additional information on La Paloma Country Club, visit lapalomacc.com or call 520.299.1500. For information about The Westin La Paloma Resort & Spa, visit westinlapalomaresort.com or call 520.742.6000. For reservations, call 1.800.westin.1.