

Elizabeth Arden Red Door Spa

In 2000, Elizabeth Arden Salons opened the first Red Door Spa on a resort property at the Westin La Paloma Resort & Spa - nestled in the foothills of Tucson's majestic Santa Catalina Mountains. Located at 3800 E. Sunrise Drive, the 9,300 square foot, full-service Red Door spa and salon is open daily and features an extensive menu of skin care services, facial treatments, waxing, massage, body treatments, hydrotherapy, manicures, pedicures, hair design, cut and color, make-up applications and more!

For over a hundred years, people have traveled to the Sonoran Desert in Arizona for health reasons, recuperation and to soak up the sun. Today's contemporary traveler will find Tucson offers a vast mecca of spa facilities, including the world-renowned Elizabeth Arden Red Door Spa. While some Arizona spas honor the healing and spiritual Native American cultures of old Arizona, the Elizabeth Arden Red Door Spa, which Miss Arden began a century ago, concentrates on the health benefits resonating from science's newest formulated Arden beauty products and signature body treatments.

The staff of The Westin La Paloma Resort & Spa believe the overall resort experience should reflect how well our products and services stimulate the five senses – sight, smell, taste, touch and sound. Entering through the vibrant Red Doors awakens these senses immediately.
